

Whatever the distance, wherever the destination—our designs lead you there. Our Transportation group provides comprehensive planning, design, and engineering services for all phases of municipal roadways and transit projects. Join our team and help us keep communities connected.

Position: Airport Civil Design Engineer

Location: Ottawa, Ontario

Our Aviation Civil Engineering Team is looking for a self-motivated team member to help grow the aviation business and manage projects Senior Associate, Transportation.

- Project management of domestic and international projects
- Lead role in airport (airside and groundside) design projects, taking projects from conception to start up, managing project controls on an ongoing basis
- Mentoring and training of junior professionals
- Support development of business with new and existing clients and assist in growth of the business
- Prepare/assist in proposal development

Qualifications:

- Bachelor degree in Civil Engineering or a technical diploma in Civil Engineering Technology coupled with five (5) + years of experience in Civil Design
- PMP designation would be an asset
- Experience in Airport and/or Transportation projects is essential
- Ability to plan and analyze budgets, schedules and resources for engineering and construction efforts for selected projects
- Ability to travel to project sites for design purposes and resident construction services.
- Demonstrated problem solving ability, planning of corrective action, including cost estimates and review of alternates, creative thinking where new design is required
- Demonstrated ability to manage projects independently
- Effective team player with excellent interpersonal skills with team members and clients
- Working knowledge of computer programs and web-based applications including Microsoft Outlook, Word, Excel, AutoCAD, Civil3D, Aircraft Modelling software

Please visit www.stantec.com/careers & apply online to Job # 2016-26310